On the bas, everyone else has someone to talk to. Row after row of chattering kids, excited for their afternoous to start, of swamer to start. I slip multi be seat next to Joanne Engatrom, who is cating an apple from the top down, core and all. Joanie and I zerus friends, exactly, but we're allies—someone to pair top with in class on group projects, someone to sin start of the down at the Bible great has the other seats are full. She sumles at me, then looks back down at the Bible great in het rap—well-some and Postie-noed from a lifetime of use. I'm not use what more invary times, hull I'm not one to judge since I'w some all the available episodes of Denon Heart upwards of a dozen times.

As Joanie reads, taking another bite of her apple, I look past her and watch Fire Bulf pass by out the windows, all six glorious stoplights. Annoyingly, I can't sop thinking about what Kyle said. Am I in low with the gays in Donon Heart? Maybe. Ricco Quiroz and Forest Reed, who play Heart and Smokey, are undenisiby attractive people. I've speri more than a few afternoons gazing at pictures of them, the slop of their jawlines, the rough texture of their more than a few aftermoors gazing at pictures of then, the slope of their jawlines, the rough texture of their stubble, the swell of their lips. Rico, the older one, has amazing dark curly hair, an open face, perfect soft brown skin, and an easy smile. He comes of a saproachable, kind, warm. I can see why fans are always tweeting Dud at him—I want him to rol wy back and tell me I'm doing a good job, I want him to AVAILABLE NOW
