

Financial Literacy is hard Here is a class to help you

The labyrinth of Financial Literacy may seem daunting, yet fear not! Behold, a guiding beacon in the form of a series of classes awaits you.

January - March Classes & Dates

Nancy Huntley
Computer Classroom
4-5pm

January 13th Banking Basics

Everything you need to know when opening that first bank account

January 27th Student Loan Repayment

Discuss facts about student loans, repayment options for federal loans vs private loans & terms related to each

February 10th Developing Sound Financial Skills

Set up a budget and control finances

February 24th What is an ITIN

Focus on who needs ITIN and why. Includes ways ITIN can and cannot be used

March 10th Saving Success

Identify goals, discuss strategies to reduce expenses and plan for next steps; focused on promoting behavioral change

March 24th Understanding Reverse Mortgages

Overview of eligibility requirements and facts about HECM. Includes info about fees and other costs with this decision

Signup and register to guarantee your seat today @ lincolnlibrary.info

Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Northern Illinois

